

Fees for the NORA 2024 Conference are determined by NORA membership status and what meeting sessions you are attending as noted in the chart below. There are no discounts available for multiple Professionals/Allied Professionals attending from the same office/practice. Your registration form will automatically configure pricing depending on your status. Early Bird pricing is ONLY available for members through Monday, May 27, 2024, and will automatically be applied to your final total. On-site registration will be an additional $75.
